In support of the ethical values of transparency, objectivity, fairness and accountability that are inherent in the Companies Act 71 of 2008, the Public Finance Management Act 1 of 1999, Code of Ethics Policy, Code of Ethics Procedure

- All employees and Director are required to declare any conflict of interest and must manage them effectively to meet requirements of the code of Ethics policy.
- The fact that a conflict of interest has been declared does not mean that it has been addressed.
- Significant personal interests and directorships must be declared, even though a conflict does not exist.
- Employees and director are required to complete and submit annual declaration forms electronically, even if they have no interest to declare.
- This form must be updated within five (5) days of any changes to the information that is supplied on this form.
- All employees and director are prohibited from having any direct or indirect personal or other beneficial interest in any contract with Azuresky, whether as a supplier, as an advisor, or by virtue of being a director or owner of the business, or in any other capacity. This includes third party related transactions with an indirect link to Azuresky contract (eg having a personal or beneficial interest or other interest in a business that has an interest in a supplier to Azuresky). Such interests are prohibited and cannot be regularised by managerial approval.
- Related parties of employees must not engage in, nor have Azuresky contract where there is a conflict of interest.

Azuresky (Pty) Ltd has been registered in terms of the Companies Act 71 of 2008 and was issued with a certificate of registration by the Companies and Intellectual Property Commission (CIPC)
