MINIMUM DOCUMENTATIONS REQUIRED FOR DIFFERENT TYPES OF APPLICATION

Below is a list of mandatory documentations that must be submitted together with the on-line application:
(Note: At SANAS discretion, additional documents or records might be requested).

INITIAL ASSESSMENT

- Online application.
- Quality Manual (including SOPs, Forms)
- Test methods.
- Five-year PT/ILC plan.
- Latest PT results (positive/pass) covering all parameters (methods) applied for.
- Validation reports of all methods applied for.
- CVs and Competence records for applicant technical signatories.
- Conformation records that all applicant technical signatories have been deemed competent for all methods applied for.
- Fully completed checklists, namely, F48; F49 and F176.

EXTENSION OF SCOPE (NEW / EXISTING SCOPE)

- Online application.
- Validation reports of all methods applied for.
- Test methods.
- Updated 5-year PT plan
- PT/ILC results (positive/pass) covering all methods (parameters) applied for.
- CVs and Competence records for applicant technical signatories.
- Conformation records that all applicant technical signatories have been deemed competent for all methods applied for.
- Training procedure
- Completed F176 (covering the new tests).

PERSONNEL RECOGNITION: TECHNICAL SIGNATORIES

- Online Application
- CVs and Competence records for applicant technical signatories.
- Conformation records that all applicant technical signatories have been deemed competent for all methods applied for.
- Training procedure.

PERSONNEL RECOGNITION: NOMINATED REPRESENTATIVES

- Online application.
- Nominated Representative (NR) appointment letter by management for the role.
- Proof of the NRs training on the CAB's management system and accreditation requirements.

RELOCATION

- Validation reports / Comparative studies
- Relocation plan
- Risk Assessment
- Internal Audit report conducted after relocation (i.e., at new premises)
- Equipment list
- PT/ILC results, where applicable.
- Other: informed by the risk assessment done.